Foster Pepper Named to Law360 List of Best Firms for Minority Attorneys

Foster Pepper is pleased to announce its placement on Law360's "Best Firms for Minority Attorneys" list. The firms were grouped with similarly sized peer firms and ranked according to the percentage of minority attorneys at the nonpartner and partner level.

This is Foster Pepper's second consecutive year appearing on this Law360 list. The firm is committed to recruiting diverse attorneys and staff and increasing diverse representation in all aspects of the firm, including in firm leadership and firm management. The firm has also established the Inclusion & Diversity Committee (FPID), chaired by Members Lori Nomura and Rafael Stone, to assist in the implementation of a diversity program and to promote and oversee inclusion and diversity efforts.

According to Law360's 2019 Diversity Snapshot, less than ten percent of all partners at surveyed firms identify as a racial or ethnic minority. To read more about Law360's "Best Firms for Minority Attorneys" list, please click here.
