Washington State's New LLC Act Effective January 1, 2016

on 1.14.16 | Posted in Corporate Matters

The State of Washington's new Limited Liability Company Act became effective on January 1, 2016. The new Act significantly alters several aspects of Washington law governing LLCs. To see what you should be aware of moving forward under the new Act (including potential changes to current LLC agreements), please feel free to refer to our white paper on the subject here.
