

"Managing and Controlling Risk in the 21st Century," Public Funds Academy

Speaking Engagement
November 1, 1999
San Francisco, CA

A discussion of the legal problems associated with private equity investing including the rights of general and limited partners, IRR calculations, discretion vs. non discretion, the role of the advisory committee, and achieving portfolio diversification.

Contact

V. Rafael Stone

Related Services

Investment Management