

Worked on a team representing a major public sector employer in an employment case

Worked on a team representing a major public sector employer in an employment case. After obtaining summary dismissal of several claims, including disability discrimination, failure to accommodate, age discrimination, and retaliation, assisted through a two-week jury trial on the remaining claim of sexual harassment. Received a full defense verdict.

Related Services

Labor, Employment & Immigration