

Served as lead trial counsel in representing the University of Washington in successfully defending discrimination and retaliation claims

Bichindaritz v. University of Washington (2012). Served as lead trial counsel in representing the University of Washington in successfully defending discrimination and retaliation claims brought by former faculty member in federal court. After a six-day bench trial, in which 23 witnesses testified, the court entered a verdict for the University on all claims. Defense verdict affirmed by the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals (2013).

Related Services

Labor & Employment
Litigation

Labor, Employment &
Immigration

Litigation