

Representation of senior managers relating to judicially-forced auction process

Currently representing senior non-shareholder managers of $1 billion privately-held company, individually and as a group, in multiple venues relating to judicially-forced auction process.

Related Services

Litigation