

Representation of two private medical centers with Major Institution Master Plan

Assisted two private medical centers in Seattle, Washington navigate the multi-year Major Institution Master Plan process that culminates in the Seattle City Council action to approve growth, allowing each facility to construct more than one million new square feet of hospital space.

Contact

Steven J. Gillespie

Related Services

Environment & Natural Resources

Real Estate, Land Use & Environmental