

Representation of a nonprofit affordable housing developer to navigate Seattle's Master Use Permit process for University District apartment project

Represented a nonprofit affordable housing developer in the City of Seattle's Master Use Permit process, including design review, to entitle construction of more than 200 units of transit-oriented apartments in Seattle's University District.

Contact

Steven J. Gillespie

Related Services

Land Use, Planning &
Zoning