Foster Garvey Newsroom

Foster Garvey is proud to announce it has once again been recognized as a top law firm by Chambers & Partners, publishers of Chambers High Net Worth. The firm was recognized as a Band 4 firm for Yachts & Superyachts globally.

Chambers High Net Worth rankings are the result of extensive survey and interviews of in-house counsel and leading law firm partners.

In addition to the practice ranking, Chambers High Net Worth ranked two Foster Garvey attorneys including:

- Christine Brown, Private Wealth Law (Oregon – Band 2) with one client commenting, “She is highly experienced in this field,” and was recognized as “a prolific author who writes a lot on trust matters.” A peer attorney commented that Christine is “very pleasant, and clients will appreciate her approach when handling their personal and legal issues.”
- Edward Harley, Yachts & Superyachts (Global – Band 3) with one source saying he is “effective and pragmatic; he doesn’t let the minutiae of the legal practice tie things up,” and another adding that “he has a really good client manner. He looks after clients as a trusted advisor.”

Chambers & Partners, based in London, publishes directories that assess the world’s leading attorneys. Chambers HNW was first introduced in 2016 as Chambers’ first publication specifically aimed at the international private wealth market.
