

Communications, Telecom & Media

The Communications, Telecom & Media team at Foster Garvey proudly serves a diverse clientele including broadcast, cable, Internet, and telecommunications companies. Our team is at the forefront of exploring new frontiers in communications law, such as digital media, podcasting, channel-sharing, and broadband ventures.

Our innovative clients represent a wide range of industries, including commercial and noncommercial broadcasters, trade associations, cable companies, American Indian Tribes, technology companies, and broadband and e-commerce providers. These forward-thinking entities are actively shaping the future of communications, and our team is privileged to work alongside them.

With an in-depth understanding of the communications and media industries, we bring a wealth of knowledge acquired from representing a diverse client base with varying commercial and noncommercial interests. Our team is committed to providing exceptional counsel as we navigate the dynamic landscape of communications law together with our clients.
