My article about Qualified Subchapter S Subsidiaries was published in the September 2016 issue of the Journal of Taxation, a Thomson Reuters publication. The article offers an in-depth discussion of the QSub qualification requirements, the election, late filing relief, termination and inadvertent termination relief. It also provides a broad discussion of various QSub planning opportunities as well as potential pitfalls. I hope it is informative and offers you some useful information for application in your tax practices.

A copy of the article is available for download on the GSB website.
