

"Comprehensive Plans," 2014 IMLA Teleconference Series

Speaking Engagement
March 10, 2014
Teleconference

IMLA describes the teleconference as: "Make no little plans; they have no magic to stir men's blood and probably themselves will not be realized. Make big plans; aim high in hope and work." said Daniel Burnham. But he didn't say anything about whether local comprehensive planning was mandatory or whether planning and zoning decisions had to be consistent with any local plans. Those issues are front and center in the turbulent legal landscape of local planning. Our two experts, who between them have four score years of experience in this area will offer you an illuminating debate subject.
