

“Introduction and Overview,” The Seminar Group's 12th Annual Cutting-Edge Issues in Condemnation

Speaking Engagement
November 17, 2022 | 9:00am PT
Seattle, WA

Following the challenges of COVID-19 Washington State and the USA is ready to get back to work. With major public infrastructure projects being proposed at all levels of government, it is imperative as ever to keep pace with the changing environment of real estate. In one of the fastest growing regions in the United States and with the focus on funding infrastructure improvements at the federal level, this seminar is a must. Speakers will provide an overview and update of eminent domain legal issues and land valuation, with emphasis on emerging issues and recent court decisions.

Kinnon W. Williams, Program Co-Chair, will be providing an introduction and overview of eminent domain and municipal law matters at the beginning of this seminar. Kinnon represents both public entities and private property owners in negotiations, mediation, and bench and jury trials, including successfully arguing cases before the Washington State Supreme Court. He is a frequent lecturer and co-author on eminent domain and inverse condemnation.

For more information on this event and to register, please visit the event registration page.

Contact

Kinnon W. Williams

Related Services

Eminent Domain & Inverse
Condemnation

Public Finance & Municipal Government

Real Estate, Land Use & Environmental