Do you feel lost and confused when trying to decipher the leaves of absence alphabet soup? You aren't alone. Join us as we revisit the world of workplace leaves and offer guidance on managing workplace absences. We will review each leave type and discuss their requirements – including eligibility, notices and employer accommodations – as well as their overlap.

By the time the session is over, you will have the information to help you understand:

- When each leave applies
- How you can minimize impact on your business
- How to keep abuse to a minimum

You will also learn best practices for tracking leaves, documenting the process, when to send out which forms, and finally, what verification of need for leave can be requested – and when.
