

“A Comprehensive Look at Agency Administrative Enforcement,” Law Seminars International Clean Water and Stormwater Conference

Speaking Engagement
March 20, 2007
Seattle, WA

Contact

Lori Terry Gregory

Hosted by Law Seminars International

Congress enacted the Clean Water Act more than 30 years ago, yet the Act remains a work in progress. Stormwater issues continue to occupy a major role in Clean Water Act implementation in Washington. Assembled representatives of state, federal and local governments, consultants, and practitioners provide practical suggestions and insights on a wide range of timely and important Clean Water Act issues.

Topics include:

- “A Comprehensive Look at Agency Administrative Enforcement”

Location:

Renaissance Hotel
515 Madison St.
Seattle, WA 98104

To learn more about this conference, click here.