

"Foreign Interference in the 2016 Elections: The Vulnerabilities of the Law Exposed," Campaign Legal Center Event

Panel Discussion
October 12, 2017
Washington, D.C.

Related Services

Election and Political Law,
Public Policy & Lobbying

Dan Petalas is part of a panel discussing foreign influence in U.S. elections and delving into available law enforcement tools and vulnerabilities.

Program panelists:

Daniel Petalas, Garvey Schubert Barer Attorney, Former Head of Enforcement at FEC and DOJ Public Integrity Section Prosecutor

Adav Noti, Senior Director, Trial Litigation and Strategy, Campaign Legal Center

Joe Lorenzo Hall, Chief Technologist and Director of the Internet Architecture project, Center for Democracy and Technology

Moderated by Tara Malloy, Senior Director, Appellate Litigation and Strategy, Campaign Legal Center.

For more information on this event, please visit the Campaign Legal Center website.