

"Starting a Career in Times of Economic Uncertainty," Washington Joint Minority Bar Associations Mentorship Program

Hosted Event
May 21, 2020
Virtual Event

Contact

Paul Heer

Are you a law student, new lawyer or looking to make a change in your career? Concerned about how to start your career and keep it moving forward now that COVID-19 has disrupted the economy? Come learn from legal professionals who survived and thrived through the 2008 Recession.

The Joint Minority Bar Association Mentorship Program is hosting a virtual panel discussion and follow-up small-group breakout sessions via Zoom on Thursday, May 21. Discussions will be led by legal professionals from various practice areas and sectors, including the judiciary, Big Law, government, non-profit, in-house counsel and more! We will share job search tips, coping strategies and how to successfully pivot during times of economic upheaval.

Starting a Career in Times of Economic Uncertainty
Thursday, May 21, 2020
4:00-5:30 p.m.

REGISTER NOW to receive the Zoom login information for this program.

The Joint Minority Bar Association Mentorship Program is generously sponsored by the Opportunity & Progress Council, Foster Garvey's diversity, equity, and inclusion initiative.

In partnership with:

- South Asian Bar Association of Washington
- Middle Eastern Legal Association

"Starting a Career in Times of Economic Uncertainty," Washington Joint Minority Bar Associations Mentorship Program

- Washington Attorneys with Disabilities
- Northwest Indian Bar Association
- WSBA's Indian Law Section
- Korean American Bar Association of Washington