

Represented large privately held natural resources company in the merger of a forest products subsidiary with a primary competitor

Represented large privately held natural resources company in the merger of a forest products subsidiary with a primary competitor. Negotiated and drafted all legal documentation, including letter of intent, contribution agreements and operating agreement for the surviving entity. Assisted with real property transfers and related matters, including environmental review and title policies. Also assisted with senior secured credit facility for the surviving company.

Related Services

Business & Corporate
Finance

Mergers & Acquisitions