

Defense of international NGO against bribery claims

Conducted internal review and persuaded Office of Inspector General (OIG) to decline to further investigate or prosecute international NGO in connection with alleged bribery scheme involving company employee in Afghanistan.

Related Services

Litigation

White-Collar Defense & Investigations