

Advice regarding the FCC's auction procedures

Guided clients through the FCC's auction procedures, including applicant structure for bidding discounts and new entrant discounts, pre-auction procedures, settlements and anti-collision issues, filing auction applications, monitoring auction results and assisting with bid placement, filing post-auction applications, and filing and responding to petitions against winning bidders.

Contact

Melodie A. Virtue

Related Services

Communications, Telecom &
Media

IP & Technology