

International Art Law

Successfully assisted client claiming paintings from Dutch government that were seized by Nazis during WWII; represented heir of prominent German photographer in trans-national cultural estate matter recovering vintage photographs and compensation; represented antiquities dealers in CCPIA proceedings before U.S. State Department.

Related Services

International