Foster Garvey Newsroom

Foster Garvey is pleased to announce that Investment Management attorney Rafael Stone has been named among the world's top legal advisors by Chambers & Partners, publisher of Chambers Global. In this year's guide, Rafael was ranked in Band 2 for Investment Funds: Investor Representation - USA.

Rafael is Co-Chair and a Principal at Foster Garvey, and is based in the firm's Seattle office. Additionally, he co-chairs the firm's Investment Management practice and advises more than 30 public pension funds located throughout the United States, in all aspects of public pension fund alternative investments.

For more than three decades, Rafael has focused his practice on U.S. and international private equity, hedge funds, infrastructure, real estate, opportunistic funds and direct investments. He has successfully navigated through a significant number of workouts and has overseen litigation involving disputes between investor clients and fund managers.

Rafael is also currently ranked as a leading individual in Chambers USA, the publisher's U.S.-focused guide, for Investment Funds: Investor Representation (Nationwide).

Chambers & Partners is the world's leading provider of legal research and analysis. Its rankings are the result of extensive surveys and interviews of in-house counsel, leading law firms and their clients, and third-party experts.
