

New York

100 Wall Street
20th Floor
New York, NY 10005-3708
T 212.431.8700
F 212.334.1278

The New York office of Foster Garvey opened in 2001 to tap into this dynamic center of commerce, media and entertainment and further expand the firm's presence in the Northeast. The office is strategically located on Wall Street in Lower Manhattan and is easily accessible by public transportation.

Foster Garvey New York attorneys represent well-known entertainers and athletes, work with a range of financial institutions, help local governments serve their communities better and assist up-and-coming food brands with building their businesses. Our clients come from diverse industries and sectors – from family-owned legacy local businesses to dynamic startups and multinational enterprises looking for help with complex international legal needs. Key practices in New York include Sports, Arts & Entertainment, Litigation & Dispute Resolution, Food & Beverage, Financial Services and Real Estate.

Our attorneys are active in their communities and participate in organizations such as The Academy of Television Arts & Sciences, The Recording Academy, The Union of Reform Judaism, The UJA-Federation, New York Urban Debate League and New York Road Runners.