Since 1982, Foster Garvey's Portland office has been a trusted partner to businesses and individuals seeking legal guidance. Our team of nearly 30 attorneys is the firm's second-largest, providing comprehensive legal services that span the spectrum from business and corporate law to litigation and dispute resolution, tax, trusts and estates, labor and employment, real estate, creditors' rights and bankruptcy, and employee benefits and executive compensation.

Our Portland office boasts a roster of accomplished principals, including a former Assistant U.S. Attorney for the District of Oregon, fellows of the American College of Trial Lawyers, American College of Tax Counsel, and American College of Employee Benefits Counsel, a certified Business Bankruptcy Specialist, and a Multnomah County Circuit Court Arbitration Commissioner.

We take great pride in our consistent recognition in Chambers USA, Chambers High Net Worth, U.S. News – Best Lawyers "Best Law Firms," Best Lawyers®, and Oregon Super Lawyers, which speaks to the exceptional caliber of our attorneys and the top-notch service we provide.

As dedicated members of the Portland community, our attorneys and staff regularly volunteer their time and expertise to a variety of worthy organizations, including the Albertina Kerr Centers, the City Club of Portland, Classroom Law Project, Court Appointed Special Advocate for Children (CASA), Edison High School, Edwards Center Inc., Lewis and Clark Law School, Oregon Innocence Project, PHAME, and Project Lemonade. We are especially proud to house the headquarters of Oregon Women Lawyers (OWLS) in our Portland office.
