

Ascertaining a Station's Regulatory Health, Part 2

Publication
August 2, 2016
Radio & Television Business Report

Radio & Television Business Report, August 2, 2016

In this last installment of our “not-too-technical, not-too-basic” guide to due diligence, Cavell, Mertz & Associates President Garrison Cavell and Garvey Schubert Barer attorney Erwin Krasnow highlight technical regulatory compliance matters. It's best not to ignore this area because the FCC is handing out four and five figure fines for a variety of sins in the engineering area. Last week they detailed issues affecting all AM, FM and television stations and this week they go into deep dives for each type of station.

Read the full article. Subscription to Radio & Television Business Report is required.