

Federal Files Can Help You Assess a Station

Publication

June 28, 2016

Radio & Television Business Report

There are four key engineering-related areas to consider in advance of closing a broadcast station transaction: station potential, regulatory paperwork, facility condition, and regulatory compliance. We've talked about evaluating the station's potential and now in two parts, Cavell, Mertz & Associates President Garrison Cavell and Garvey Schubert Barer attorney Erwin Krasnow will take a look at the dreaded topic of regulatory paperwork.

Read the full article. Subscription to Radio & Television Business Report is required.