

Seattle Kenneth L. Schubert Jr. 1L Diversity Fellowship Program

Foster Garvey believes that diversity enriches our workplace and enhances our ability to best serve our clients. We are committed to the full participation and inclusion of diverse professionals in our firm and the legal profession as part of our core values of diversity and inclusion. To that end, we seek diverse attorneys, whether persons of color, women, LGBTQ, or persons with physical limitations and whether they represent economic, geographic, social, ethnic, racial or religious diversity. With these core values in mind, we offer the Kenneth L. Schubert Jr. 1L Diversity Fellowship Program to honor one of our early founders, Ken Schubert Jr., a champion of diversity in the profession.

Criteria

The Kenneth L. Schubert Jr. 1L Diversity Fellowship will be offered to a student who will be in their first year of law school during the 2021-2022 school year. The recipient will receive a paid 10-week summer associate position in our Seattle office between their first and second year of law school. After successful completion of the summer associate position, the Diversity Fellow will receive a $15,000 fellowship award ($7,500 payable at the start of the first semester/quarter of the second year, and another $7,500 payable at the start of the second semester/quarter of the second year) upon the showing of continued outstanding academic performance.

Application Requirements & Process

The application period for Summer 2022 is now closed. Requirements and deadlines for Summer 2023 applications will be available in late 2022.

Please address any questions related to the program to Georgia Woodruff, Director of Legal Talent & Professional Development, at georgia.woodruff@foster.com.

We look forward to hearing from you.
