2013 Cascadia Educational Conference a Success

03.07.13

Over the past 2 days, MPI hosted its annual Cascadia Educational Conference in Portland, Oregon. I had the pleasure of participating at this year's event, presenting on group sales issues and privacy. Copies of my presentations are available here: Group Sales Contracts: Interesting Case Studies and The Rising Significance of Guest Information.

Congratulations to MPI for another terrific event. I look forward to hopefully seeing everyone at next year's Conference.
