Antitrust & Consumer Protection

Securing your competitive edge

Navigating the landscape of business competition requires thorough diligence in complying with domestic and foreign antitrust and trade regulations laws. We partner with clients to understand their business objectives and industry demands while working meticulously to find practical and cost-effective solutions to risk management and compliance challenges.

Clients frequently look to us to provide guidance related to:

- Cartel matters
- Federal Trade Commission, U.S. Department of Justice and European Competition Commission
- Complex disputes and litigation involving private parties, including dealers, distributors and franchises
- General compliance counseling
- Investigations brought by government authorities, including the Federal Trade Commission
- Mergers clearance
- Risk prevention

We represent both large private companies as well as small public entities. For decades, we have represented transportation clients and health care entities, and our substantive knowledge of these industries is unmatched. We also represent a broad range of other industries, among them fishing, retail and technology.

Whether you're a manufacturer, retailer, distributor or business in any sector, we're here to provide proactive, creative legal solutions that keep your business protected and on track.
