Bryan Helfer Named 2021 Mentor of the Year by the King County Bar Association

03.31.22 Foster Garvey Newsroom

Bryan Helfer was chosen as one of two honorees named 2021 Mentor of the Year by the King County Bar Association (KCBA) New Lawyers Division for serving as a role model who has paved the way for new and aspiring attorneys.

The award was presented at the KCBA's New Lawyers Division Spring Soiree on Thursday, March 31, 2022. Bryan was nominated for his commitment to community and the empowerment of new attorneys, both in his professional and personal life.

In addition to being recognized for his mentorship, he was honored for his service to the community in the form of pro bono work, advocacy and collegiality in and outside the legal field.
