“Can ChatGPT Be Your New Associate? The Ethics Of AI,” NCSLA 2025 Central/Western Regional Conference

October 7, 2025 Rapid City, SD

Kristina D. Dickens is slated to speak at the National Conference of State Liquor Administrators (NCSLA) 2025 Central/Western Regional Conference.

Kristina’s panel will tackle one of the most pressing topics for modern legal professionals: the ethical integration of artificial intelligence. As generative AI tools like ChatGPT become ubiquitous, the legal industry must navigate a new frontier of risks and responsibilities. The panel will delve into core ethical implications, including AI’s impact on client confidentiality, an attorney’s duty of competence and supervision in light of AI-hallucinated cases and the ethical considerations for invoicing AI-generated work.
