"Commercial Leases in the 21st Century," The Seminar Group

May 11, 2018 Portland, OR

Thriving in today's commercial real estate marketplace requires meticulous negotiation skills, a 360-degree understanding of the leasing environment and the ability to plan for the unexpected.

Join us for this comprehensive seminar where our seasoned commercial real estate industry professionals will share key best practices and real-world insights. Gain practical guidance, learn about current leasing trends and discover ways to safeguard against risk. Our speakers and panels will present on a wide range of hot topics affecting all parties involved in commercial lease transactions and related disputes, such as hotly contested lease provisions, construction issues, estoppel certificates and subordination agreements, workout negotiations and lease for cannabis properties.

Joe West is serving as Program Chair.
