Duff on Hospitality Law Named Among FeedSpot's 10 Best Hotel Law Blogs and Websites in 2025

10.03.25 Foster Garvey Newsroom

Foster Garvey is pleased to announce that Duff on Hospitality Law, authored by Greg Duff, Chair of the firm's national Hospitality, Travel & Tourism practice, has been named to FeedSpot's 2025 list of the 10 Best Hotel Law Blogs and Websites. The recognition places the blog alongside leading national resources for hotel and hospitality law.

Published since 2010, Duff on Hospitality Law has become a long-standing resource for those navigating the legal and commercial realities of the hospitality sector. The blog is home to Greg's Online Travel Update, a weekly briefing that tracks distribution strategies, regulatory shifts and operational issues shaping online travel. Alongside these updates, the blog regularly examines broader industry trends that affect owners, operators, franchisors and their partners.

Greg has devoted nearly 30 years to counseling hospitality businesses on sales and marketing, distribution, management agreements, operations and procurement. He advises a broad range of clients, including hotels, airlines, cruise lines, tour operators, restaurants and leading industry associations.

FeedSpot evaluated blogs across the web based on relevancy, authority and readership. The 2025 ranking reflects the continued value of Duff on Hospitality Law as a resource for clients, colleagues and the hospitality community at large.
