Emily Harris Gant Recognized Among Global Top 200 Cannabis Lawyers

09.03.25 Foster Garvey Newsroom

Foster Garvey is pleased to announce that Emily Harris Gant has been named to the Global Top 200 Cannabis Lawyers list, published by Cannabis Law Report and Cannabis Law Journal. Her recognition places her among a select group of lawyers shaping the global conversation around cannabis law.

Emily serves as the chair of Foster Garvey's Cannabis, Alcoholic Beverages and Commercial & IP Transactions practices. She is recognized for bringing focus and direction to industries where regulation is in constant flux and certainty is rare. In cannabis, she works closely with producers, processors, retailers and entrepreneurs to navigate Washington's layered regulatory system, develop strategies for growth and build businesses with the resilience to expand. Her work in alcohol law complements this focus, giving her a distinctive vantage point across markets where regulatory obligations and business priorities must move in step.

Emily's recognition reflects the strength of her counsel and the impact she has in guiding businesses through the future of these heavily regulated industries.
