Foster Garvey Welcomes Gabriel Corwin to Investment Management Group

05.27.25 Foster Garvey Newsroom

Foster Garvey is pleased to announce the arrival of Gabriel Corwin as an associate in the firm's Investment Management group. He has experience in corporate and fund formation landscapes and is well-versed in representing clients of all sizes through the fundraising process.

Gabriel joins Foster Garvey from Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati where he supported the fund services group as a corporate associate. He has facilitated a myriad of fund formation and structuring transactions for domestic and international capital and private equity funds, ensuring compliance with relevant securities laws and exemptions under the 1933 Act.

"As our investment management practice continues to expand, we're excited to have Gabe onboard," said Rafael Stone, firm co-chair and co-chair of the Investment Management practice. "His background in both domestic and international alternative investing enhances our ability to serve clients navigating today's increasingly complex investment environment."

Bob Perez, a member of the Firm's Executive Committee and co-chair of the Investment Management group, added, "His hands-on experience and knowledge will make him an excellent addition to the team." He continued, "Gabe's ability to manage complex transactions while effectively addressing institutional investor concerns will continue to provide the best-in-class service that our clients have come to expect."

Gabriel holds a law degree from Northwestern Pritzker School of Law and a bachelor's degree from Pacific University in Japanese and History.
