Foster Garvey Wins Pro Bono Cup for Contributions to the Family Violence Appellate Project

05.23.24

We are honored to be recognized by the Family Violence Appellate Project ("FVAP") for our contributions at their Sweets & Justice for Survivors Fundraiser in Washington State. The event was a sold-out success, raising over $17K to support survivors of gender-based violence.

The fundraiser was an inspiring celebration of FVAP's milestones over the past three years, including individual case victories, new statewide case law and legislative wins that support survivors of gender-based violence.

Our own Adrian Urquhart Winder was celebrated for her impactful work on behalf of survivors. We are grateful to be part of a community that includes volunteers, former clients, state legislators, local organizations, board members and neighbors who attended the fundraiser to show their support.

We are proud to stand alongside other dedicated law firms that participated in the Pro Bono Cup competition. Together, we have provided crucial financial and pro bono appellate legal support.
