Insurance Coverage

Maximizing the value of your insurance investments

Policyholders across a wide array of industries turn to us to manage their risk and defend them in disputes with their insurers.

Recognized as among one of the nation's leading firms by Chambers USA, we're proud of reputation of maintaining one of the most comprehensive pro-policyholder insurance coverage practices in the Pacific Northwest.

We work with clients of all sizes - ranging from large corporations and public sector entities to company officers and directors - to maximize the value of their insurance investments, both when attaining coverage and after claims are made. When disputes arise, our attorneys are adept at resolving issues with pre-litigation strategies and have a proven track record in defending clients at trial in both federal and state courts.

Our team's reach is national, and we're well-equipped to handle diverse and complex insurance issues, no matter where our clients do business. We've successfully represented clients in insurance matters across the country, including in Alabama, Alaska, Arizona, California, Connecticut, Florida, Hawaii, Idaho, Illinois, Missouri, Montana, Nevada, New York, North Carolina, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Texas, West Virginia, Wyoming and Washington. Additionally, we've advised clients in cross-border matters, including cases in Guam and British Columbia, Canada, giving our practice a truly expansive scope.

Clients look to us for guidance in the following areas:

- Bad faith, IFCA and Consumer Protection Act
- Construction defect claims
- Cyber risk (including data breach coverage)
