Larry Brant, Greg Duff and Josh Bloomgarden Named 'Top Authors' in 2022 JD Supra Readers' Choice Awards

03.07.22 Foster Garvey Newsroom

Foster Garvey is proud to announce that attorneys Larry Brant, Greg Duff and Josh Bloomgarden were recognized by the 2022 JD Supra Readers' Choice Awards as among the top thought leadership contributors out of more than 65,000 contributed articles for highest visibility and engagement by readers.

The awards honor the top 267 authors and firms read by C-suite executives, in-house counsel, media and other professionals across the JD Supra platform during 2021 in 28 key, cross-industry categories.

Larry Brant was recognized as a leading author for his Tax insights. Larry is a Principal and Chair of the Tax & Benefits practice group and is based in the Portland office. He assists business entities and high-net-worth individuals with tax planning and related guidance; tax controversy; and transactions. His prominent blog, Larry's Tax Law, provides CPAs, tax professionals and clients with in-depth analysis of complex current tax issues, as well as other timely federal, state and local tax law updates. Since 2019, Larry has been recognized among JD Supra's Top Ten authors in the Tax category, comprising a pool of more than 5,500 thought leaders.

Greg Duff was recognized for his extensive coverage of travel and tourism industry developments in the Transportation category. Based in the Seattle office, Greg chairs the firm's Hospitality, Travel & Tourism practice and advises on a variety of matters faced by hospitality and travel industry members. His weekly digest, Online Travel Update, appears on the firm's Duff on Hospitality Law blog and offers a global perspective of key news in the hospitality and online travel arena. Greg has been recognized among JD Supra's Top Authors for three years running and in 2021 was named the No. 1 Author in the Transportation category.

Josh Bloomgarden was recognized for his content in the broad category of Trademarks. A first-time JD Supra Readers' Choice Awards honoree, he is an Associate based in the New York office with a focus on intellectual property spanning across sports, entertainment, food and beverage, fashion and apparel, media, and technology industries. Josh writes on the weekly Sports & Entertainment Spotlight series, tackling a number of issues from Kanye West, the NFL, Peloton, NFTs and much more.
