“May the Force Majeure Be With You: Examining Commercial Lease Disputes Related to COVID-19,” Multnomah Bar Association COVID-19 CLE Series

April 21, 2020 Virtual Event

Matt Yium, Tom Scott, and Paul Trinchero will examine emerging commercial lease disputes arising out of the COVID-19 pandemic. The topics of discussion will include force majeure provisions in commercial leases, common law defenses of impossibility, frustration, and impracticability, and issues surrounding Governor Brown's recent 90-day moratorium on commercial evictions.

This is part of a series of CLE seminars the Multnomah Bar Association (MBA) CLE Committee is offering to its members for FREE to help navigate the current legal environment related to COVID-19.

A recording of this program is available in the Free CLE Library on the MBA website.

Please note that you must be logged in as an MBA member to access the library.
