Oregon Government Finance Officers Association Fall Conference

October 28-30 Eugene, OR

Courtney Dausz is attending the Oregon Government Finance Officers Association (OGFOA) Fall Conference October 28-30 in Eugene, OR. With her deep understanding of financial management and public entities, Courtney is eager to connect with industry leaders and explore the latest developments in pubic finance strategy.

Originally organized in 1940, the OGFOA promotes professionalism and excellence in public financial management. The OGFOA conference aims to foster individual professional growth, advance the profession and further standards and policies for the benefit of our communities.

Learn more and register for the event on the OGFOA website.
