Paul Trinchero Honored with Best Lawyers 'Lawyer of the Year' Designation

08.25.25

Foster Garvey is pleased to announce that Portland-based attorney Paul Trinchero has been honored with the 2026 "Lawyer of the Year" distinction in Eminent Domain and Condemnation Law. Designated to only a single lawyer in a specific practice area and geographic region, this is the second consecutive year Paul has been recognized as "Lawyer of the Year." In 2024, he was similarly acknowledged with this prestigious title in the Litigation - Real Estate practice area.

Paul represents property owners and local governments in litigation in condemnation and eminent domain actions. His practice also includes representing property owners in property tax appeals and clients in litigation relating to business and real estate disputes.

Inclusion in The Best Lawyers in America® and Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch® in America is determined solely through a comprehensive peer-review survey. More than 31 million evaluations were analyzed in this year's review cycle. Learn more about Best Lawyers and its recognition methodology at bestlawyers.com.
