

Professional Staff

Find your place and thrive.

Are you a legal professional looking for a place where you feel welcome, heard and empowered to grow? At Foster Garvey, we're proud of our team's culture of collaboration and support among attorneys and staff.

We understand that achieving a balance between high performance and individual well-being is crucial for maintaining a happy, thriving workforce, and we prioritize it for our staff. When joining Foster Garvey, you'll be part of a place that supports both personal fulfillment and professional excellence, with numerous opportunities to take on exciting challenges and master new skills, while pursuing your interests outside of work.

Our staff often describe Foster Garvey as one of the best places to work because of the firm's positive and welcoming environment, the interesting and rewarding assignments, and the access to tools and training necessary to succeed at the highest level. Many also note the valuable leadership skills they gained by serving on key firm committees. It's no wonder our employees carve out long-term careers here.

Foster Garvey is fully committed to upholding an environment centered around diversity and inclusivity. We strive to create a workplace that attracts and retains a diverse range of talent to promote individuals in a bias-free manner.