Overview

Rob advises clients on a wide range of corporate and real estate matters, with a focus on mergers and acquisitions, financing, strategic partnerships and corporate governance.

He works with companies to structure transactions, assess legal and operational risk and manage regulatory obligations from initial planning through closing. Rob also provides outside counsel assistance to clients on governance, transactional and contractual matters.

Rob brings sound judgment to negotiations and a steady hand to transactions with significant legal and commercial exposure. His clients include those in regulated and asset-intensive sectors such as financial services, real estate, manufacturing, development, agribusiness and energy. Many of his matters involve layered ownership structures, jurisdictional complexity and long-term business planning.

In the financing area, Rob has extensive experience drafting and negotiating financing arrangements, including credit agreements, loan documents, note purchased agreements and related security documents and intercreditor agreements.
