Overview

Sam is an associate in the firm's Business & Commercial Transactions group.

Sam holds valuable experience as a law clerk at the Alaska State Supreme Court, where he researched, wrote and edited court opinions in collaboration with the Honorable Dario Borghesan.

While in law school, Sam served as a research assistant for two of his professors. He was also a staff editor for the Seattle University Law Review and a law mentor for the Seattle Youth Traffic Court.

Before law school, Sam was an insurance agent at a life insurance brokerage and focused on communicating directly with clients to resolve issues and fulfill their insurance needs.

He holds a J.D. from Seattle University School of Law and a B.S. in Astrophysics from Haverford College. Sam played collegiate soccer as a goalkeeper throughout his four undergraduate years.
