“Using the Full IP Portfolio: Turning Patents, Brands, Copyrights and Trade Secrets into Business Leverage,” 2026 CenterForce IP Strategy Summit: NYC

November 12, 2026 New York, NY

Benjamin J. Hodges is a featured panelist at the 2026 CenterForce IP Strategy Summit in New York City.

He will join other intellectual property and business leaders for a discussion on how companies can make the most of their IP portfolios, including decisions around what to protect and enforce, and how patents, trademarks, copyrights and trade secrets can support growth and innovation.

For more information or to register, visit the CenterForce website.
