

Events

“Valuation of Wasting Assets,” 2024 Eminent Domain and Land Valuation Litigation Conference

February 1, 2024 New Orleans, LA

Join us on February 1, 2024, at 1:30 PM at the JW Marriott in New Orleans, LA, for a compelling session titled “Valuation of Wasting Assets,” presented by Kinnon Williams and Christina Thoreson of Real Counsel, LLC. This session explores efficient strategies for valuing depleting assets and is a key feature of the Eminent Domain and Land Valuation Litigation 2024 Conference.

This conference is an essential gathering for professionals in various fields, including land use and zoning attorneys, real estate lawyers, appraisers, property valuation consultants, constitutional law experts, and municipal or local government legal advisors. It’s especially beneficial for those engaged in eminent domain disputes.

Featuring a comprehensive agenda that addresses a wide range of contemporary issues in the field, the Eminent Domain and Land Valuation Litigation Conference attracts a diverse group of professionals nationwide. Whether your interest lies in relocation, regulatory takings, inverse condemnation, valuation challenges, or other areas, the conference offers a customizable learning experience to suit your professional needs.

For more information about the conference, including details on special accommodation options, available credits for your state(s), and other pertinent details, please visit the conference website.

Featured People

Kinnon W. Williams

Principal|Seattle

206.447.2887 kinnon.williams@foster.com

Related Areas

- Eminent Domain & Inverse Condemnation
- Land Use & Development Permitting