

Events

“Where Governance and Employment Law Meet,” Credit Union Association of the Dakotas Directors College

April 11, 2019 Fargo, ND

Hosted by Credit Union Association of the Dakotas (CUAD) Directors College

This one-day educational session is designed for CEO's, upper management, and volunteers seeking specific training for their duties and board responsibilities. Hot button credit union topics are presented and discussed by industry experts.

Topics include:

- "Where Governance and Employment Law Meet" – The Credit Union Board's Role in Overseeing the CEO and Responding to #MeToo. Attorney Steve Peltin's lively and provocative presentation will highlight two areas where credit union Board members need to know employment law. Steve will first address the Board's essential tasks of selecting, supervising, and replacing the Chief Executive Officer. Then Steve will cover the Board's responsibility in harassment prevention and response in the era of #MeToo.

Location:

Delta Marriott
1635 42nd Street SW
Fargo, ND 58103

To learn more information, click here.

Featured People

Steven R. Peltin

Principal|Seattle

206.447.6215 steve.peltin@foster.com